

ATLSFW Fashion Tour

Immersive Learning & Business Experience

Netherlands • October 2024

From the Desk of ATLSFW

Every since the inception of Atlanta Sustainable Fashion Week, my vision has been to help brands expand globally. The Kingdom of the Netherlands is a leader in sustainable fashion and textiles. So why not learn from a leader. I am honored to have the opportunity to work with the Netherlands to curate this trip helping brands get to the next level. Experience sustainability from the time you arrive until your departure including the hotel and restaurants. I am excited to welcome you to join me on this spectacular journey. Seats are limited as we are only taking 15 companies. Reserve your seat today!

From the Office of the Consul General

The Netherlands Consulate General in Atlanta is pleased to announce its support with the preparation, implementation and follow up of the Atlanta Sustainable Fashion Week (ATLSFW) fact-finding mission to the Netherlands in May 2024. The mission will focus on exploring innovative sustainable fashion practices in the Dutch fashion industry and fostering collaboration between Dutch and Atlanta-based designers, entrepreneurs and knowledge institutions. The Consulate General is committed to promoting sustainable fashion practices and is confident that this mission will contribute to the growth and success of the ATLSFW and the Atlanta fashion community overall.
